Working towards a better world.

At Hyundai Motor, we don't just talk about a cleaner, greener world, we are committed to it in everything we do. Since the early 1990s, we have drastically cut pollution from our factories, have instituted more sophisticated recycling systems, and have invested heavily in both emission reduction and alternative fuels research. As the world moves from low to zero emission vehicles, rest assured, we are prepared and ready to be among the pioneers who are dedicated to preserve the environment and the world that we share.
